Key Collection, Welcome and Car Parking

- The parking area for the shepherds hut is on the LHS of the gravelled entrance drive immediately to the left fork signposted Cazenovia Hall, Riverain & Wythburn Cottage next to the sandstone wall by the lane in front of Blencowe Hall.

The what3words address for the shepherds hut parking area is ///fired.blinking.entrusted

- At the LHS of the gravelled parking area, there is a small wooden store with three doors holding trolleys within for use in carrying your belongings to your Retreat and for any other carrying you require during your stay. The code is the same as for your shepherds hut key safe. You are welcome to keep your cart by your hut if you would like during your stay. Please will you return your cart to your section of the store when not in use at your hut. From left to right, the doors are allocated to Elm, Hawthorn and Rowan Retreats.

If you would prefer to drop off your belongings at the shepherds hut using your car (and the ground is dry enough to travel safely over the gravel track in your vehicle), the entrance gate to the shepherds huts area is on the left hand side of the public road leading from Blencowe to Greystoke across the road from the parking area and about 10 meters from the entranceway to Blencowe Hall. The combination for the padlocks on the vehicular gates is 7124. Please do not move the wooden sleepers which limit the vehicular approach to the shepherds huts as these last sections of the approach to the huts are not suited to vehicular access.

The shepherds huts are located a short walk across the field along the gravel track. Elm Retreat is the first hut reached, Hawthorn Retreat is the second and Rowan Retreat is the third and last hut located along this gravelled access track.

- The key for the door is in a coded key safe – details of the location and code will be sent to you by us prior to your holiday.
